

THE MUSEUM OF disABILITY HISTORY
FILM AND SPEAKER SERIES

PRESENTS

DIFFABILITY HOLLYWOOD

SATURDAY, JUNE 17, 2017

TWO SHOWINGS
3:00PM
AND
7:00PM

MUSEUM OF disABILITY HISTORY
3826 MAIN STREET, BUFFALO

Diffability Hollywood is a documentary about Hollywood's portrayal of people with disabilities in films throughout history. One of filmmaker Adrian Esposito's main goals in making this film is to have people with disabilities portrayed in a less stereotypical way and to advocate for more inclusion of writers, directors and actors with disabilities in the movie industry.

125 minutes, PG

RECEPTION: MEET THE DIRECTOR!

ADRIAN ESPOSITO

5:00PM | Q&A AND REFRESHMENTS

Adrian, a creative and award-winning filmmaker, has gained national and international recognition. Adrian has autism and is a spokesperson for self-advocates, helping the world accept people with disabilities as capable and seeing their disabilities as "diffabilities."

TICKETS $5

limited seating available

Tickets are for sale in advance at the Museum of disABILITY History or on the day of the event, if space is available.

To purchase or reserve tickets, call 716.629.3626.

